

8.45 - 9.00	Welcome Stephen Judd , Chief Executive, Hammond Care
9.00 - 9.30	Official Opening – Minister for Ageing invited
9.30 -10.00	John Killick and Kate Allan The view from the centre
10.00 - 10.45	Dawn Brooker Person centred care - Gaps in research, gaps in practice but going strong
10.45 -11.15	MORNING TEA
11.15 - 12.00	Lynn Chenoweth Person centred care – is it affordable, is it effective?
12.00 - 12.30	Dorothy Burton Dementia, the spirit who steals
12.30 - 1.30	LUNCH
	Person Centred care	Symposium: Evaluating the national dementia programs	Bridging the gaps in general practice	Improving Models of Care	Communication Workshop	Community Care
	1A	1B	1C	1D	1E	1F
1.30 - 2.00	Beverley Giles Shona McKenzie Person centred care – where? Let's begin again more intelligently.	Collen Doyle (Chair) Vanessa White David Dunt Janet Opie How do the national dementia programs measure up? An update on the LAMA consortium evaluation.	Fiona B Millard Does education and audit change GP behaviour in managing dementia? A pilot randomised control trial	Michael Cahill A New Paradigm in Dementia Care: Where are the cracks and why do people fall through them?	John Killick Creative communication – listening with all your senses. This workshop will introduce you to the variety of communication modalities that John has been exploring. They include photography, poetry, empathic listening, touch and massage.	Christine While "Out of the shadows": improving the care of community nursing clients living with dementia.
2.00 - 2.30	Lisa McDowell Person-centred care: rhetoric or reality?	The LAMA evaluation team will report on and discuss their evaluations :- How is research and training in dementia in Australia developing?	Melinda Martin-Khan Assessing cognitive function via tele-consultation.	Chris McMahon Edenising lip service leadership.	Those who know the work of John Killick will be pleased to hear his latest thoughts, those who don't will have their eyes opened to a profoundly satisfying and exciting way to be with people with dementia.	Geoffrey P. Jones Gaps in commonwealth funded aged care packages – a person centred approach in family homes and localities.
2.30 - 3.00	Kath Readman The person centred environment	Are EACHD community care packages what the community needs? Dementia Essentials training and Dementia Caring pilot - making a difference?	Paul Varghese Provision of specialist advice via tele-consultation.	Marleina Hoschke Respect – implementing a care framework and philosophy in residential and community care.		Di Fitzgerald Young people's experiences with dementia: an educational resource for use in schools.
3.00 - 3.30	AFTERNOON TEA
	Person Centred Care – taking the best into the future	Technology and the built environment	Young people with dementia	Palliative Care	A systematic approach to working with feelings	Educating staff to meet the challenges of new services
	2A	2B	2C	2D	2E	2F
3.30 - 4.00	Panel discussion chaired by Stephen Judd Panel members: Lynn Chenoweth Dawn Brooker John Killick Kate Allan	Richard Fleming Shima Sum Is there evidence for the beneficial effects of assistive technology in the care of people with dementia.	Adrienne Withall People with younger onset dementia: between the devil and the deep blue sea.	Lenore de la Perrelle Good endings to good lives for older people with dementia needs good planning.	Jane Verity Hilary lee An implementation model of person-centred care.	Ron Thompson Seeding the future of mental health care for older people.
4.00 - 4.30		Jason Burton From hospital to hotel, what happened to home?	Sue Lenon The double dilemma - dementia and developmental disabilities.	Deborah M Mazhindu Working with Emotions in Dementia Care.	Kirstin Robertson-Gillam A randomised control trial of choir therapy as a means of reducing depression in people with dementia.	Felicity Hughes Anne Sammut Striving to create the right social environment for quality dementia care – the Southwood experience.
4.30 - 5.00		John Flower Design process for dementia specific facilities.	Marie D. Alford Connexus – assisting people with younger onset dementia to 'live to the max'.	Sharon Andrews-Hall Re-finding the passion for family centred care: towards a palliative approach on a dementia special care unit.	Vanessa Solomon The Future of Music Therapy in Dementia Care: Developing a Holistic Therapy Plan.	Wendy Lee Kyle An educational approach to filling a gap in undergraduate nurses knowledge of person centred care and dementia.

8.45 - 9.00	Welcome and housekeeping
9.00 - 9.30	Jenny Abbey How to manage end-of-life care for people with dementia - where is the evidence?
9.30 - 10.00	Yukime Uchide End of life care in Japanese group homes
10.00 - 10.45	David Conn Practical psychiatry in aged care services
10.45 - 11.15	MORNING TEA
11.15 - 11.45	Mike Bird Psychosocial treatment of complex cases in later life: Issues and inadequacies
11.45 - 12.15	Andrew Robinson Quality care – innovations in staff development
12.15 - 12.45	John Zeisel Environmental design and art for people with dementia: what works and how do we know it works
12.45 - 2.00	LUNCH
	Educating the professionals 3A	Community Care 3B	Psycho-social therapies 3C	Workshop 3D	Symposium: Psychologists Contribution 3E	Technology and the built environment 3F
2.00 - 2.30	A panel discussion with contributions from the audience. Chaired by Patrick Crookes Panel members:- David Conn Andrew Robinson Helen Edwards Jenny Abbey Dawn Brooker	Peter McHale Bridging the Community/Residential Divide -Developing a Successful Respite Service for People with Dementia.	Daniel O'Connor Psychosocial treatments of agitated behaviours in dementia: do they work?	Kate Allan On the move: Walking not wandering This workshop will explore the place of walking in human life generally as well as encouraging participants to consider the many reasons why persons with dementia may spend time walking. The aim is to promote a more holistic response to what is often automatically considered a problem to be solved.	Mike Bird (Chair) Bernie McArthur Deborah Koder John-Paul Troiani Clinical Psychology and Dementia Psychologists have contributed a lot to theory and research – but what have they to offer in practice?	John Zeisel Stephen Judd Ian Forbes Kirsty Bennett Theory, practice and the gap in between – an open discussion on implementing best practice environmental design for people with dementia.
2.30 - 3.00		Sindhu Summers Hands of hope project: closing gaps in identifying and preventing depression using the person-centred approach.	Sumiko Kanegae Measuring the effectiveness of learning therapy.
3.00 - 3.30		Lee-Fay Low Dementia - what does the community know about it?	Lenore de la Perrelle Maintaining the passion by monitoring wellbeing for people with dementia.
3.30 - 4.00	AFTERNOON TEA
	Creative therapies 4A	Psycho-social therapies 4B	Identity 4C	Nutrition 4D	Mental Health services in residential aged care 4E	Technology and the built environment 4F
4.00 - 4.30	Aileen Wright Closing the gaps with innovation.	W. John T. Rodd 4 steps to managing behaviour.	Elizabeth Fenwick Who are you looking after? The importance of a life history.	Michele Prior Sandy Sacre Oral liquid nutritional supplements: how are they regarded and are they effective.	A panel discussion with contributions from the audience. Chaired by John Snowdon Panel members: David Conn Angela Raguz	Marleina Hoschke Staying at home with dementia – how technology and the environment can help.
4.30 - 5.00			Jane Bowtell Engaging in life "art as a medium".				Jacqueline Ruth Perkins Benefits of dog-assisted therapy for older people with dementia living in residential care facilities: does prior dog contact make a difference?	Cheryl Atkins Care partnerships in spiritual and pastoral care.
								Rose Wake Demensia.
5.00 - 5.15	Concluding remarks and farewell							