All meals are freshly cooked at Mudyigaali Cottage and tailored to each person's individual needs, including religious and cultural preferences. We recognise the importance of food quality, taste and nutrition, but also its visual appeal to stimulate appetite.

“ There has been such a positive difference in Dad’s mood and behaviour, each time he has attended overnight respite. The staff and managers are always so helpful with everything, including his personalised needs. I have witnessed such warmth, love and care towards him. ”
